4:00 PM	Shotgun	Annie Oakley – 10-15 shooters on the line 22yd line. The first shooter calls for a bird and must shoot the bird on the rise. If the bird is hit, the next shooter on the right side calls for a bird. If the first shooter misses the bird, the second shooter must shoot at the bird, if the bird is hit the first shooter is “Out”. If the second shooter misses the third shooter has the option to shoot at the bird. If the third shooter hits the bird both shooters one and two are “Out”. This sequence is repeated down the line. The rotation will continue until there is only one shooter left. Shoot off will happen at the 27 yd line for the winner’s bracket.

- For shotgun games. If a bird is called for and demeaned good by the judge a shooter must shoot at the bird, any shots not taken will be scored as a miss. An example would be, leaving the safety on and attempting to fire the gun.
